

7. Duisburg-Frankfurt Workshop „Institutions in East Asia`s Development“
11 April 2019

Duisburg-Essen University, Institute of East Asian Studies (IN-EAST), Building SG, Room 183, Geibelstraße 41, 47057 Duisburg

PROGRAMME

- From 12:00 Lunch, „Panda Snack Bar“, Finkenstraße 25, Duisburg
- 14:00 Opening
- 14:10 On the institutional quality of the ‘Modern Silk Road’
Prof. Dr. Ibrahim Öztürk, Visiting research fellow, Duisburg-Essen University
- 14:50 Anti-corruption drive and corporate frauds: Evidence from China’s recent anti-corruption campaign
Na Zou, M.A., Goethe University Frankfurt
- 15:30 Peer-to-Peer lenders versus Banks: Evidence from China
Shixu Zeng, M.A., Duisburg-Essen University
- 16:10 - 16:40 Coffee break
- 16:40 Creating a city of spectacles: Governmental ambiguity, beggars and public space in Southern China
Ryanne Flock, Goethe University Frankfurt
- 17:20 Entrepreneurial ecosystems in Korea and Germany: On the role of regional entrepreneurial cultures
Prof. Dr. Werner Pascha, Diana Schüler, M.Sc., Mihaela Suhalitca, M.A., Duisburg-Essen University
- 18:00 End of Workshop

Directions to lunch venue:
„Panda Snack Bar“, Finkenstraße 25, Duisburg

By public transport: From the main train station by bus, lines 924 or 933 to "Universität", then 2 minutes by foot

By car: Due to limited parking space in the vicinity of the restaurant, guests are advised to park at the workshop venue/university.

Directions to workshop venue:
Duisburg-Essen University, Institute of East Asian Studies (IN-EAST),
Building SG, Room 183

By public transport: From the main train station by bus, lines 924 or 926 to "Uni-Nord/Lotharstraße", then 2 minutes by foot

By car: via A40, take exit Duisburg-Kaiserberg, follow the signs to "Zoo/Universität" or via A3, take exit Duisburg-Wedau, follow the signs to "Zoo/Universität"

From the lunch venue, it is a 5-minute walk via “Gneisenaustraße” to the workshop venue.

