
Call for Applications for the Double Degree Master Program with Université Paris Dauphine-PSL 2024/25 for students of the “Master of Science in Money and Finance” (MMF) only

The Faculty of Economics and Business offers a Double Degree Master Program with the partner university Paris Dauphine-PSL. Students of the MMF are very welcome to apply for the prestigious program. After successful completion of the study program in Frankfurt and Paris you can obtain two degrees, the “Master of Science in Money and Finance” from Goethe University and the Master “Economie et Finance” from Université Paris Dauphine-PSL.

The Double Degree Master Program is scheduled for four semesters. In your first and second semester you will follow the study program of MMF in Frankfurt. You will then spend your third semester (winter semester 2024/25) at the University Paris Dauphine-PSL in the Master "Economie et Finance" (30 CP). You can start an internship in January 2025 already and write an internship report (6 CP). Thereafter you prepare your Master thesis either at University Paris Dauphine-PSL or at the Faculty in Frankfurt. (24 CP) in both cases according to the examination regulations of the Faculty of Economics and Business.

There are 5 slots for the Double Degree Master Program.

Funding:

The Erasmus+ program provides partial funding. The funding in 2023/24 was 540 Euros per month. The amount for 2024/25 is not yet known.

Additional support may be available from the Willy Robert Pitzer Foundation Bad Nauheim and BHF Bank Foundation. The final decision if the so far support of 300 Euros per month will be continued is not yet taken and will be communicated during the summer semester 2024.

Eligibility:

- Students in the Master program “Master of Science in Money and Finance” who started their studies in winter semester 2023/24 and who will be in their 3rd semester in winter semester 2024/25.

Requirements for Participation:

- Adequate language proficiency (Since the MMF program is taught in English, a certificate proving language competence in English is not mandatory).
- To be ultimately admitted to the programme you have to successfully finish the following modules:
 1. In semester 1: 30 CP consisting of the five “Fundamental Modules”.
 2. In semester 2: 30 CP consisting of 2 modules in “Money” (12 CP), 2 modules in “Finance” (12 CP) and one seminar in “Money” or “Finance” (6 CP). We strongly recommend to complete the “Money” seminar in Frankfurt.
 3. Only one module can be re-taken after the second semester unless it is a “Fundamental Module”.

Before the Application

You may apply for the Double Degree Master Program and the regular one-semester exchange programs (Erasmus+ and worldwide) simultaneously. For the latter, please refer to the corresponding (separate) call for application and use the specific application form of the program. The application for the Double Degree Master Program has priority over the application for the regular exchange programs (Erasmus+ and worldwide).

If your application for the Double Degree Master Program is successful, you will not be admitted to the regular one-semester exchange program (Erasmus+ or worldwide). Please note that you cannot apply for the QTEM Programm if you apply for the Double Degree Master Program.

Application Procedure and Required Documents:

1. Please apply online for the Erasmus+ Program 2024/25 on the Global Office's website and upload the required documents (The Mobility Online Portal for 2024/25 will be open from December 20). This step is a prerequisite for participating in the Erasmus+ Program and obligatory for your application. Please indicate on the online application form that you apply for the Double Degree Master Program and, if applicable, name the other university (universities) you choose for the regular Erasmus+ exchange. If you have any questions regarding the online application for the Erasmus+ program, please contact the Global Office: outgoing@wiwi.uni-frankfurt.de.
